Australasian Pig Science Association Conference 2025

SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

INVITATION TO SPONSOR

On behalf of the Australasian Pig Science Association (APSA), I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to support and celebrate our 20th Biennial Conference, being held at the RACV City Club, Melbourne from 17th – 19th November 2025.

APSA members come from all aspects of pig research, management, production and processing and are represented throughout Australia and New Zealand, Europe, North America and the Asia-Pacific region.

The APSA Conference is open to anyone with an interest in pig science and production, and the program will represent all disciplines.

The last two APSA Conferences demonstrated that even with the challenges of a global pandemic, the pig science community valued coming together to share their research and catch up with colleagues and friends. The continued generous support from our sponsors made this possible during trying times.

The Committee anticipates that the 2025 Conference will assemble more than 250 delegates in a face-to-face format. We're continually evaluating how we deliver value for delegates and sponsors alike, and in 2025 we're making some changes.

The first day of the 2025 program will be dedicated to applied science to encourage the attendance of pork producers. The day will include invited speakers, presentations from authors of contributed papers and opportunities for sponsors to share the science behind their products and services. This is a unique opportunity for sponsors to be part of the main program with no other scheduled meetings or workshops run alongside, ensuring direct access to all delegates. We also have some exciting new sponsorship opportunities to share with you.

We look forward to seeing you in Melbourne and welcome your support in making this event a great success.

If you have any questions regarding the Conference, please do not hesitate to contact myself on 0410 648 088 or Kate Murphy on 0408 732 277, or email apsa@kamevents.com.au.

Yours sincerely

Dr Kate Plush

CORPORATE PROSPECTUS

WHAT IS THE AUSTRALASIAN PIG SCIENCE ASSOCIATION (APSA)?

The purpose of the Australasian Pig Science Association (APSA) is to provide a forum for excellence in science related to all aspects of the pig industry. By promoting interaction between scientists from different disciplines and from different countries, APSA ultimately benefits both domestic and international pig industries.

WHAT IS THE APSA CONFERENCE?

The APSA held its first Conference in Albury, NSW, in 1987. Researchers working with pigs saw a need for a society that would bring together people from a range of disciplines all with a primary interest in pig science. The aim was to provide a forum for scientific discussion that would create an impetus for further research in priority areas of pig production and ultimately improve overall productivity. Since that time APSA has met every two years and the Conference proceedings has gained an international reputation for the quality of its reviews and short papers.

Since 1987 the Conference has developed to a point where it now has a world-wide reputation as a forum for exchange on important issues relating to the pig industry. The meetings have a blend of basic and applied research covering every aspect, from nutrition to health, genetics to the environment and management.

The APSA recognises that much of the value of a Conference is the opportunity to meet new people in the industry or to renew old acquaintances. The Conference is therefore held in a relaxed atmosphere with ample opportunity to socialise with other delegates.

THE OPPORTUNITY

The APSA is expecting between 250 - 300 delegates to attend the 2025 Conference in Melbourne.

Only a small number of businesses and organisations will be invited to partner with us in our endeavour to provide a quality Conference program and an enjoyable experience for delegates. There are a range of sponsorship opportunities being offered to suit all budgets and desired level of impact.

The event schedule will commence on Monday 17th November 2025 and incorporates three days of presentations and three social functions.

WHAT'S NEW FOR 2025

The 2025 APSA Conference will include an additional half day of presentations to provide more exposure for sponsors.

In lieu of Industry Workshops, the applied science day on Monday 17th November will provide six opportunities for sponsors contributing $5,000 or above to make a twenty-minute science-based presentation. This aspect of the program will be promoted to encourage increased attendance by producers.

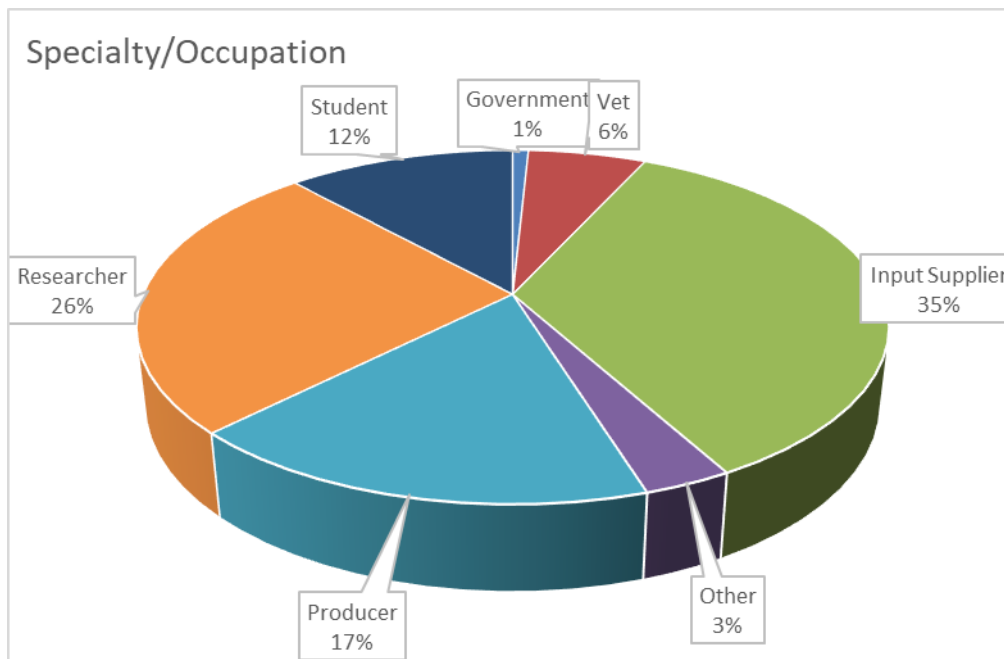

The Committee is also endeavouring to extend our reach into Asia. We're confident that the planned initiatives will attract increased participation from Asian delegates.

The Gala Dinner has been moved to the third day of the Conference program, Wednesday 19th November.

We again welcome APRIL and APL to hold their stakeholder and student meetings in conjunction with the Conference. These meetings will take place on Thursday 20th November.

DELEGATE PROFILE

Being a sponsor of the APSA Conference will provide your business with a unique opportunity to link directly with a broad range of national and international delegates. APSA delegates will be within a unique demographic of scientists, pig industry consultants, nutritionists, veterinarians and innovative pig producers, therefore providing sponsors with a key target marketing opportunity. While the majority of delegates come from Australia and New Zealand, almost one quarter now come from the Asia-Pacific region, Europe and North America. This provides an excellent opportunity to not only learn what is happening in the international pig industry, but as a sponsor it provides opportunities to promote your business interests worldwide.

MARKETING

The APSA provides sponsors with a unique opportunity to access a highly targeted and influential audience throughout the event.

The marketing campaign will include the following:

- All sponsor logos on the Conference website pre and post Conference
- Extensive email campaign
- Sponsor logos displayed in the Conference app
- Corporate signage displayed prominently throughout the Conference.

"It was great to see the industry so behind it and the R&D so linked."
